Caroline Gim

With over 12 years as a real estate professional, Caroline Gim is a respected name in Southern California real estate. Expert Real Estate & Investment specializes in high velocity and targeted marketing efforts. They create a unique marketing campaign for every property and can get your home in front of the right buyers FAST. Their unique company approach means that you can count on a team of professionals working for you for the price of one agent. Each employee has a specific role and specialty, and you still have a single point of contact that will give you regular updates on the status of your home. Caroline works with Sellers, Investors, and Developers throughout Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino Counties. Caroline is a proud and significant sponsor of the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
